

From Our Clients

“I was surprised that my credit can be fixable. I feel more in control of my future. Thanks for all your help!”— a Shawnee client

“The counselor was very knowledgeable about credit. He helped me really understand my credit and where to go from here. I feel positive that I will soon be debt free and this process will make me a better money manager for my future. Thank you for the opportunity to fix my future by taking care of my past.”-a Northwest OKC client

“My visit was very reassuring and comforting, not only as to debt counseling, but also on a personal level. The counselor was very concerned and cared about my personal situation, as well as my financial stability. Thank you!” -a South OKC client

“This really gives me hope and the feeling that there is a light at the end of the tunnel. It is a wonderful opportunity for us who are in trouble with debts to help ourselves.” - a Lawton client

“My counselor was like an angel from heaven. I was about to claim bankruptcy until I found out about CCCS. Thank you for being kind, sincere and for not being condescending during my time of desperation .” -a telephone client
